sion rooms in the high school.

The Ann Arbor Machine company, of this city, and the Ypsilanti Hay Press company, the W. L. McCullough company, and the Michigan Machine Tool & Foundry company, of Ypsilanti, face a demand from the molders for an eight-hour day at $6. There was a hearing Monday in the city council chamber.

Prof. Van Tyne, head of the his-